Date(s): 28/02/2019

Duration: 01 day

Venue: Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering Campus, Tal. Trimbakeshwar, Dist. Nashik

Details of Participants: 50

Introduction:

The NSS (National Service Scheme) volunteers at KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering orchestrated a successful donation drive in support of the IAB Trust, an organization dedicated to empowering the visually impaired. The initiative coincided with White Cane Day, symbolizing the campus community's dedication to making a tangible difference in the lives of those with visual impairments. A distinctive aspect of this initiative was the association of a White Cane Day flag with each Rs. 5 donation, creating a tangible symbol of solidarity for contributors.

The NSS volunteers orchestrated an inclusive campaign that encompassed the entire campus. The introduction of the White Cane Day flag, provided to donors contributing Rs. 5 or more, added a visually impactful and meaningful dimension to the donation drive.

Financial Outcome:

The campaign proved to be a resounding success, resulting in a total donation of Rs. 5275/-. This impressive sum underscores the generosity of the campus community and the effectiveness of the NSS volunteers in mobilizing support for a worthy cause. As a token of appreciation for their support, donors were presented with the distinctive White Cane Day flag. This small yet symbolic gesture served to reinforce the significance of their contribution and further heightened awareness about the cause.

Conclusion:

The White Cane Day Donation Drive at KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering not only achieved its fundraising objectives but also fostered a sense of community, empathy, and social responsibility. The success of this initiative is a testament to the collective strength of the campus community in making a positive impact on the lives of the visually impaired through their generous donations and unwavering support for the IAB Trust.
