Introduction

The NSS unit of KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering, known for its dedication to community service and awareness initiatives, organized a Road Safety Street Play at the RTO Office in Nashik. The primary objective of this event was to raise awareness about road safety and responsible driving among the attendees, which included government officials and the general public.

Objective:

1. To create awareness about road safety and responsible driving among the general public.
2. To engage NSS volunteers in a creative and impactful awareness campaign through street play.
3. To influence positive change in road safety behaviour within the community.

The Road Safety Street Play event at RTO Office, Nashik, included the following activities:

1. Street Play Performance:

NSS volunteers, who were motivated by a strong sense of social responsibility, actively participated in a street play performance. The play was designed to convey important road safety messages in a creative and engaging manner.

2. Audience Engagement:

The play was performed in front of a diverse audience that included government officials and members of the public. The interactive nature of the street play encouraged audience participation and dialogue on road safety issues.

3. Road Safety Awareness:

Throughout the event, road safety awareness materials were distributed to the attendees, including pamphlets and information booklets. These materials provided practical tips and guidelines for safer driving practices.

Impact and Feedback:

The Road Safety Street Play received a positive response from the audience, including government officials. The interactive format of the street play effectively conveyed the importance of road safety, and attendees appreciated the creative and engaging approach.

Conclusion:

The NSS unit of KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering made a meaningful contribution to road safety awareness by organizing this street play at the RTO Office in Nashik. The event effectively conveyed the importance of responsible driving and road safety, influencing positive behaviour change among the audience. This report summarizes the NSS unit's Road Safety Street Play at the RTO Office in Nashik
