PROGRAM REPORT

Title of the Program: NSS Special Camp - Awareness Rally

Date(s): 28/02/2022 Duration of the Camp – 1 Day

Venue: Pegalwadi Village, Taluka Trimbakeshwar, Dist. Nashik.

Details of Participants: 50

Name of the Contact Person: Mrs. S. B. Bairagi, Gramsevak, Pegalwadi Village, Tal. Trimbakeshwar, Dist. Nashik.

Introduction:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering organized a 7-day residential camp in Pegalwadi Village, Taluka Trimbakeshwar. This camp aimed to engage NSS volunteers in various social activities, fostering community development, and spreading awareness on critical issues like Swachh Bharat, girl child education, gender equality, and de-addiction.

The Awareness Rally:

The awareness rally was a vibrant and dynamic event that showcased the commitment of NSS volunteers towards making a positive change in society. The rally procession started from the heart of Pegalwadi Village and meandered through the village's streets, attracting the attention of local residents.

Key Highlights of the Rally:

Slogans and Chants: Throughout the rally, NSS volunteers passionately chanted slogans related to the themes of Swachh Bharat, girl child education, gender equality, and de-addiction. These slogans echoed the importance of these issues, encouraging the community to take action.

Banners and Posters: NSS volunteers held eye-catching banners and posters that conveyed powerful messages about the subjects. These visuals were strategically placed in the rally to reinforce the message and educate the public.

Engagement with the Community: Volunteers interacted with the local residents, discussing the significance of the issues at hand and encouraging their involvement. The discussions were fruitful in raising awareness and initiating conversations around these important topics.

Impact and Outcomes:

The rally had a profound impact on both the NSS volunteers and the local community. It succeeded in creating a sense of urgency and awareness about the issues of Swachh Bharat, girl child education, gender equality, and de-addiction. The vibrant and energetic presence of the volunteers in the village left a lasting impression on the minds of the residents.

The engagement with the local community was significant, and it is expected to lead to continued efforts in these areas, such as setting up awareness programs, workshops, and community initiatives.

Conclusion:

The 7-day residential camp at Pegalwadi Village, organized by the NSS Unit of KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering, was a remarkable success. The awareness rally was a highlight of the camp, effectively spreading awareness on crucial issues that demand our immediate attention. It showcased the dedication and enthusiasm of NSS volunteers in contributing to the betterment of society. This initiative is a testament to the positive impact that the youth can have on their communities when they come together with a common goal of bringing about positive change.
