PROGRAM REPORT

Title of the Program: Mission Yuva Swasth Vaccination drive college campus for college and nearby villagers.

Date(s): From 29/10/2021 Duration: 01 day

Venue: KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal COE, Sapkal Knowledge Hub Campus, Anjaneri.

Details of Participants: 20

Introduction:

The NSS Volunteers of KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering actively participated in the Mission Yuva Swasth vaccination drive, a collaborative initiative by the government of Maharashtra. The event took place at the Sapkal Knowledge Hub campus, where our institute played a pivotal role as one of the organizers.

The mission aimed to promote youth health by facilitating easy access to COVID-19 vaccinations. Anjaneri Public Health Center doctors collaborated with our team to administer vaccine doses during the activity. The NSS Volunteers played a crucial role in supporting the vaccination team, ensuring the smooth execution of the campaign.

Collaboration and Organization:

Our institute, KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering, took pride in being an organizer for this significant health initiative. The collaborative efforts brought together students, nearby villagers, and healthcare professionals in a shared mission to enhance community health.

Volunteer Involvement:

The NSS Volunteers actively engaged in various aspects of the vaccination drive. Their roles included assisting the vaccination team, guiding participants, and providing logistical support to ensure the efficient flow of the activity. Their dedication and enthusiasm greatly contributed to the success of the event.

Beneficiary Impact:

The impact of the Mission Yuva Swasth activity was substantial, with a considerable number of students and villagers availing the opportunity to receive their COVID-19 vaccine doses. The event not only promoted individual well-being but also fostered a sense of community responsibility in the face of the ongoing pandemic.

Conclusion:

The Mission Yuva Swasth vaccination drive at KCT's Late G. N. Sapkal College of Engineering stands as a testament to the power of community collaboration in addressing public health challenges. Through the collective efforts of NSS Volunteers, organizers, and healthcare professionals, the event successfully contributed to the broader mission of achieving widespread vaccination coverage and fostering a healthier community.
