Leadership Development Program:

India has the largest youth population in the world; More than 50% of the population is below 25 years of age. Youth can play a very important role in changing and shaping the future of this economy. Only the youth can help transform our country from a developing nation to a developed nation. Youth are not only tomorrow's leaders but today's partners.

Today the youth population of India wants a nation free from poverty, unemployment and inequality. With this objective in mind, the Young Inspirators Network (YIN) has come up with an initiative – the Leadership Development Program (LDP). The program aims to nurture young minds, guide them and make them socially responsible. It will help in bridging the gap between society and government by creating young and dynamic leaders for national development. LDP will nurture young minds to become socially responsible leaders in various fields like business, politics, arts, science, medicine etc.

The role of youth in today's social transformation is important and their participation is essential. Our Leadership Development Program (LDP) will enable everyone to contribute to the best of their ability and potential. It will bring them together and help build the nation for a better tomorrow. Young Inspirators Network (YIN) also salutes all the youth who have tried to make a difference in the past.
