

Department of Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering

Program Specific Outcomes (PSO) (PG)

1. Understand, analyze and develop hardware and software in the areas related to various domains of Analog, Digital and Signal processing systems.
2. Apply standard practices and strategies in signal processing using hardware and programming environment to deliver a quality product for business success.